

NOLANDS TERMS & CONDITIONS

Independent Review Engagement

1.	Our responsibilities.....	2
2.	Responsibilities of the Directors.....	2
3.	Financial Intelligence Centre Act	3
4.	Reportable irregularities	3
5.	Regulatory and professional obligations.....	4
6.	Reporting	5
7.	Staff	5
8.	Information.....	6
9.	Future use of the review conclusion.....	6
10.	Additional deliverables.....	6
11.	Third party rights.....	7
12.	Reporting to third parties	7
13.	Third parties.....	8
14.	Electronic communications	8
15.	Use of Nolands' software	8
16.	Ownership of and access to review files.....	9
17.	Circumstances beyond our or your control.....	9
18.	Waiver, assignment and sub-contractors	9
19.	Exclusions and limitations on our liability.....	9
20.	Timetable	10
21.	Fees.....	10
22.	Distribution of any service or product.....	12
23.	Responsibility relating to electronic distribution of our conclusion.....	12
24.	Referral commission	13
25.	Quality of service	13
26.	Non-exclusivity	13
27.	Other services	14
28.	Use of Nolands Consultants	14
29.	Future years	14

1. Our responsibilities

We will conduct our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements (ISRE) 2400, 'Engagements to Review Financial Statements'. ISRE 2400 requires us to conclude whether anything has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the financial statements, taken as a whole, are not prepared in all material respects in accordance with IFRS for SME. ISRE 2400 also requires us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of financial statements in accordance with ISRE 2400 consists primarily of making enquiries of management and others involved in financial and accounting matters, applying analytical procedures and evaluating the sufficiency and appropriateness of evidence obtained. A review also requires performance of additional procedures when the practitioner becomes aware of matters that cause the practitioner to believe the financial statements as a whole may be materially misstated. These procedures are performed to enable us to express our conclusion on the financial statements in accordance with ISRE 2400. The procedures selected will depend on what we consider necessary applying our professional judgment, based on our understanding of the company and its environment, and our understanding of IFRS for SME and its application in the industry context.

As we are engaged to review the financial statements and a review is not an audit of the financial statements:

- (a) There is a commensurate higher risk that any material misstatements that exist in the financial statements reviewed may not be revealed by the review, even though the review is properly performed in accordance with ISRE 2400.
- (b) In expressing our conclusion from the review of the financial statements, our report on the financial statements will state that an audit has not been performed and will expressly disclaim any audit opinion on the financial statements.

2. Responsibilities of the Directors

You will retain responsibility and accountability for:

- (a) the management, conduct and operation of your business and affairs;
- (b) any representations made by you or the entity to third parties, including published information;
- (c) the maintenance of the accounting records that fairly represents the state of affairs and business of entity;
- (d) the establishment and maintenance of an internal control structure necessary to provide reasonable assurance that adopted policies and prescribed procedures are adhered to for the prevention of errors and irregularities, including fraud and illegal acts;
- (e) the preparation of the annual financial statements which fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the entity, including adequate disclosure in accordance with IFRS for SME and Companies Act 71, of 2008;
- (f) the preparation of the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate, in which case the necessary disclosures have to be made;
- (g) the adjustment of the financial statements to correct material misstatements;
- (h) the selection and consistent application of accounting policies;
- (i) the safeguarding of assets;
- (j) the use of, extent of reliance on, or implementation of advice or recommendation supplied by us or other services;
- (k) the delivery, achievement or realisation of any benefits directly or indirectly related to the services that require implementation by you;

- (l) apprising us of all allegations involving financial improprieties received by management and the directors, and providing timeously full access to us to these allegations and sources of allegations;
- (m) informing us of all directors', management and committee meetings, and all other meetings owners are entitled to attend. We are entitled to be heard at any such meetings on any matters that concern us as reviewer;
- (n) providing us with access to all information of which management is aware that is relevant to the preparation of the financial statements such as records, documentation and other matters;
- (o) providing us with additional information that we may request for the purpose of the review; and
- (p) providing us with unrestricted access to persons within the entity from whom we determine it necessary to obtain evidence.

If we have any comments affecting the form and contents of the annual financial statements, we will discuss these with the directors.

Any withholding of information could be considered as a limitation of the scope of our review and may prevent us from expressing a conclusion on the annual financial statements, cause us to alter the form of the report we may issue or affect our ability to continue as the entity's independent reviewer.

As part of our review, we will request from management written confirmation concerning representations made to us in connection with the review. These written representations, responses to our enquiries and results of our tests form the evidence we will be relying on in expressing a conclusion on your financial statements.

Any delay in providing us with the required information may affect our ability to comply with the agreed timetable.

Any time and other expenditure incurred as part of our duties as your reviewer, will be included in our fees.

3. Financial Intelligence Centre Act

In terms of Section 29 of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act we are required by law to report to the Financial Intelligence Centre certain suspicious or unusual transactions of which we become aware, such as those which may involve money laundering, which have no apparent business or lawful purpose, or which may be relevant to an investigation of evasion or attempted evasion of tax. This statutory requirement, which applies to both prospective clients and existing clients, overrides the professional ethics rules of confidentiality, which we observe.

4. Reportable irregularities

A reportable irregularity in terms of the Companies Act 71, of 2008 is any act or omission committed by any person responsible for the management of a company, which:

- (a) unlawfully has caused or is likely to cause material financial loss to the company or to any member, shareholder, creditor or investor of the company in respect of his, her or its dealings with that entity; or
- (b) is fraudulent or amounts to theft; or
- (c) causes or has caused the company to trade under insolvent circumstances.

If we are satisfied or have reason to believe that a reportable irregularity has taken place or is taking place we must, without delay, send a written report to the Commission. The report must give particulars of the reportable irregularity and include such other information as we consider appropriate.

We must, within three business days of sending the report notify the directors in writing of the sending of the report and the provisions of the Companies Act and Regulations, attaching a copy of the report to the Commission to the notice.

We must, as soon as reasonably possible, but no later than 20 business days from the date on which the report was sent to the Commission:

- (a) Take all reasonable steps to discuss the report with the directors.
- (b) Afford the directors the opportunity to make representations in respect of the report, and
- (c) Send another report to the Commissioner containing a statement that, either no Reportable irregularity has taken place, or the reportable irregularity is no longer taking place and adequate steps have been taken to mitigate loss suffered, or the reportable irregularity is continuing.

5. Regulatory and professional obligations

The requirements under regulatory and professional obligations are in addition to the reportable irregularity requirements.

The Directors or employees of the firm have a professional obligation to act in the public interest, and to act in order to:

- (a) enable the Client to rectify, remediate or mitigate the consequences of the identified or suspected non-compliance with law or regulation; or
- (b) deter the commission of the non-compliance or suspected non-compliance with law or regulation where it has not yet occurred.

Non-compliance with law or regulation” (non-compliance) refers to an act of omission or commission, intentional or unintentional, committed by the Client, or by those charged with governance, by management or by other individuals working for or under the direction of the Client which are contrary to a prevailing law or regulation.

Where we encounter non-compliance or suspected non-compliance we will seek to obtain an understanding of the matter and where appropriate will discuss the matter with the appropriate people at the Client, or those charged with governance of the Client in order that such people can take appropriate action to rectify, remediate or mitigate the consequences of the non-compliance, deter the commission of non-compliance where it has not yet occurred or disclose the matter to appropriate authority where required by law or regulation or where considered necessary in the public interest.

We, in encountering non-compliance or suspected non-compliance, are also obliged to comply with applicable legislation or professional standards, which may require us to disclose the matter to an appropriate authority.

We also have a professional responsibility to consider whether the response of the Client to the instance of non-compliance or suspected non-compliance is adequate, and may determine that further action is necessary. Such further action may include, amongst other actions, the disclosure of the matter to an appropriate authority. We will disclose the matter to an appropriate authority only where, in the professional judgment of the engagement partner, the extent of the actual or potential harm that is or may be caused to investors, creditors or employees or the general public is sufficient to justify the disclosure.

In exceptional circumstances, we may be required to immediately disclose the matter to an appropriate authority where we have become aware of actual or intended conduct that we have reason to believe would constitute an imminent breach of law or regulation that would cause substantial harm to investors, creditors, employees or the general public. In such circumstances we discuss the matter with the management or those charged with governance of the Client where it is appropriate to do so.

6. Reporting

Our review will be conducted with the objective of expressing our conclusion on the financial statements, that is 'Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that these financial statements do not present fairly, in all material respects in accordance with IFRS for SME's

The form and content of our report may need to be amended in the light of our findings obtained from the review.

7. Staff

Our staff members undergo periodic training and this, together with the taking of annual leave, may lead to staff turnover and lack of continuity. We will use our best endeavors to avoid any disruption to an engagement's progress.

Save as envisaged below, you agree not to make any offer of engagement or to otherwise interfere with or entice away from the employment of any persons employed by Nolands. You further agree not to use such person's services as an independent consultant or via a third party for a period of 12 months following the end of such person's involvement, without the prior written consent of Nolands.

Should you make any offer of employment to any person currently employed by Nolands or who was employed by Nolands for the immediately preceding 12-month period from the date of such offer of employment, you will be liable for and will pay to Nolands a placement fee equal to 15% of such employee's total annual cost to company, excluding VAT.

Nolands is committed to providing a safe work environment for its employees both inside and outside office work while on company duty. The company will therefore not condone any form of harassment and/or abuse of employees by clients while on client premises.

Nolands will also not condone any form of harassment by an employee of a client while on client premises.

Any complaint of harassment and/or abuse brought to the attention of the company will be dealt with according to the Company Sexual Harassment Policy.

8. Information

To enable us to perform the services, you will use your best endeavors to procure and to supply promptly all information and assistance, and all access to documentation in your possession, custody, or under your control, and to personnel under your control, where required by us. Where such information and/or documentation is not in your possession or custody, or under your control, you will use your best endeavors to procure the supply of the information, assistance and/or access to all the documentation.

We may rely on any instructions or requests made or notices given or information supplied, whether orally or in writing, by any person whom we know to be or reasonably believe to be authorised by you to communicate with us for such purposes (“an unauthorised person”).

We may receive information from you or from other sources in the course of delivering the services and:

- (a) We will consider the consistency and quality of information received by us;
- (b) We will not seek to establish the reliability of information received from you or any other information source. Accordingly, we assume no responsibility and make no representation with respect to the accuracy, reliability or completeness of any information provided to us;
- (c) We will not be liable to you for any loss or damage suffered by you arising from fraud, misrepresentation, withholding of information material to the services, or other default relating to such material information, whether on your part or that of the other information sources.

You undertake to supply information in response to our enquiries to enable us to comply with our statutory obligations relating to the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, No.38 of 2001 and the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, No.121 of 1998.

9. Future use of the review conclusion

Any agreement to perform work in connection with an offering, including an agreement to provide such permission or consent, will be a separate engagement and subject to a separate engagement contract. You agree that our review report, or reference to us, will not be included in any such offering document without our prior written permission or consent. Any agreement to perform work in connection with an offering, including an agreement to provide such permission or consent, will be a separate engagement and subject to a separate engagement contract.

10. Additional deliverables

The work we undertake to support any conclusions reached in additional deliverables that we have agreed to, will be limited to the work we undertake for reaching our conclusion. Any advice and recommendations will therefore be limited by the scope of our work, and may not cover all issues which might arise from a specific in-depth review. Any use made of our advice and recommendations should be viewed in this light.

Any product of the services released to you in any form or medium will be supplied by us on the basis that it is for your benefit and information only and that it may not be copied, referred to or disclosed, in whole or in part (save for your own internal purposes), without our prior written consent. The services will be delivered on the basis that you may not quote our name or reproduce our logo in any form or medium without our prior written consent. You may disclose in whole any product of the services to your bankers and legal and other professional advisers for the purposes of your seeking advice in relation to the services, provided that when doing so you inform them of:

- (a) Disclosure by them (save for their own internal purposes) is not permitted without our prior written consent; and
- (b) We accept no responsibility or liability whatsoever and neither do we owe any duty of care to them in connection with the services.

11. Third party rights

The services contract will not create or give rise to, nor will it be intended to create or give rise to, any third-party rights.

12. Reporting to third parties

Our review conclusion is intended for the benefit of those whom it is addressed. The review will not be planned or conducted in contemplation of reliance by any third party or with respect to any specific transaction. Therefore, items of possible interest to a third party will not be specifically addressed and matters may exist that would be assessed differently by a third party, possibly in connection with a specific transaction.

There may be situations for example in relation to loan agreements, where a third party seeks to request us, in our capacity as independent reviewers, to report to them.

Any contractual arrangements between you and a third party which seek to impose such requirements upon us will not, as a matter of law, be binding on us. The company agrees that it will not seek us to commit to providing reports to third parties unless we have consented to do so in advance. We may decline to provide reports to third parties, save for those reports required by law or regulations. We will stipulate the terms upon which those reports will be provided - should we agree to provide such reports in a capacity other than being your independent reviewers. The entity will assist us in agreeing the terms upon which we will report to third parties. Any such possible requirements must be discussed with us at the earliest opportunity and well before the loan agreement or other arrangement is finalised. In this regard, however, it is our policy not to extend our duty of care in respect of our review report in the financial statements.

As noted above, our conclusion will be prepared for and only for the company's members in accordance with the Companies Act and for no other purpose.

Where we agree to provide reports to third parties, it remains the company's responsibility to provide us with copies of the relevant contract documents and with any further information or explanations that we may require in order to enable us to prepare our report.

We will not, in giving our conclusion, accept or assume responsibility (legal or otherwise) or accept liability for or in connection with any other purpose for which our report or conclusion may be used, or to any other person to whom our report is shown or into whose hands it may come, and no other persons shall be entitled to rely on our conclusion save where they have obtained our prior written consent that they may do so. If we have to accept responsibility to the third party, we will require their acceptance of limitation of liability as a condition of providing a report to them and reserve the right to charge additional fees.

13. Third parties

You will indemnify the Nolands contracting party and any Nolands persons and hold them harmless against any loss, damage, expense or liability incurred by the parties and/or persons as a result of, arising from, or in connection with a combination of the following two circumstances:

- Any breach by you of your obligations under the services contract.
- Any claim made by a third party or any other beneficiaries which results from or arises from or is connected with any such breach.

14. Electronic communications

We may choose to communicate with you by electronic mail where an authorised person wishes us to do so, on the basis that in consenting to this method of communication, you accept the inherent risks of such communications (including the security risks of interception of or unauthorised access to such communications, the risks of corruption of such communications, the risk of errors or loss of information and the risks of viruses or other harmful devices) and that you will perform virus checks. We will use commercially reasonable procedures to check for the most commonly known viruses before sending information electronically.

We recognise that systems and procedures cannot be a guarantee that transmissions will be unaffected by such hazard.

We confirm that we each accept the risks of and authorise electronic communications between us. We each agree to use commercially reasonable procedures to check for the then most commonly known viruses before sending information electronically. We shall each be responsible for protecting our own systems and interests in relation to electronic communications and the company and us (in each case including our respective directors, employees or agents) shall have no liability to each other on any basis, whether in contract, delict (including negligence) or otherwise, in respect of any error, damage, loss or omission arising from or in connection with the electronic communication of information between us and our reliance on such information.

The exclusion of liability in the previous clause shall not apply to the extent that any liability arises out of acts, omissions or misrepresentations which are in any case criminal, dishonest or fraudulent on the part of our respective directors, employees, or agents.

If our communication relates to a matter of significance on which you wish to rely and you are concerned about the possible effects of electronic transmission, you should request a hard copy of such transmission from us. If you wish us to password protect all or certain documents transmitted, you should request us to do so.

15. Use of Nolands' software

We may develop software, including spreadsheets, documents, databases and other electronic tools to assist us with our assignment. In some cases, these aids may be provided to you upon request. As these tools were developed specifically for our purposes and without consideration of any purpose for which you might use them, they are made available on an "as is" basis for your use only and should not be distributed to or shared with any third party. Further, we make no representations or warranties as to the sufficiency or appropriateness of the software tools for any purpose for which you may use them. Any software tools developed specifically for you will be covered under a separate engagement letter.

16. Ownership of and access to review files

The working papers and files for this engagement created by us during the course of the review, including electronic documents and files, are the sole property of Nolands, and you have no right to access them. We may decide, at our own discretion, to grant you access to our working papers, should you wish to.

We have set quality control policies for the retention of documentation, after which time we will commence the process of destroying the contents of our engagements files. To the extent we accumulate any of your original records during the engagement, those documents will be returned to you promptly upon completion of the engagement.

We will retain ownership of the copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the product of the services, whether oral or tangible. For the purposes of delivering services to you or other clients, we will be entitled to use or develop knowledge, experience and skills of general application gained through performing the services. You agree to keep confidential any methodologies and technology used by us to carry out our services. If you wish to distribute copies of any of these materials, this will require our prior written permission.

We have the right to use your name as a reference in proposals or other similar submissions to other prospective clients, unless you specifically withhold permission for such disclosure. If we wish to use details of the work done for you for reference purposes, we will obtain your permission in advance.

17. Circumstances beyond our or your control

Neither of us will be in breach of our contractual obligations, nor will either of us incur any liability to the other, if we or you are unable to comply with the services contract as a result of any cause beyond our or your reasonable control. In the event of any such occurrence affecting one of us, that one shall be obliged as soon as reasonably practicable to notify the other, who will have the option of suspending or terminating the operation of the services contract on notice, which notice will take effect immediately on delivery thereof.

18. Waiver, assignment and sub-contractors

Failure by any one of us to exercise or enforce any rights available to us shall not amount to a waiver of any rights available to either of us. However, neither party should be liable in any way for failure to perform or delay in performing, our respective obligations under this engagement if the failure or delay is caused outside reasonable control of the failing party.

Neither of us will have the right to assign the benefit or burden of the services contract without the written consent of the other.

We will have the right to appoint sub-contractors to assist us in delivering the services.

19. Exclusions and limitations on our liability

The maximum liability of us or any individual partner, member, or employee, as the case may be, of ours in respect of direct economic loss or damage suffered by you or by other beneficiaries arising out of or in connection with the services shall be limited to two times the fees charged and paid for these services. The maximum liability will be an aggregate liability for all claims arising, whether by contract, delict, negligence, or otherwise.

In the particular circumstances of the services set out in the engagement letter, the liability to you and to other beneficiaries of each and all persons in contract or delict or under statute or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage (including loss of profits) suffered by you (or by any such other party) arising from or in connection with the services, however the indirect or consequential loss or damage is caused, excluding our willful misconduct, shall be excluded to the extent that such limitation is permitted by law.

Our liability to you will in no circumstances exceed the lower of the amount determined by the application of the monetary limit based upon fees charged to, and recovered from, you and the amount determined by the apportionment of responsibility, as the case may be.

You and other beneficiaries may not bring any claim personally against any individual partner/director, member, employee or agent, as the case may be, of the Nolands contracting party or of any other body or entity controlled by us or owned by us or associated with us in respect of loss or damage suffered by you or by other beneficiaries arising out of or in connection with the services. You agree that any claim of any sort whatsoever arising out of or in connection with this engagement shall be brought only against Nolands. This restriction shall not operate to limit or exclude the liability of Nolands contracting party for the acts or omissions of its partners, directors, members, employees and agents.

Any claims, by you or other beneficiaries, howsoever arising, must be made (for these purposes a claim shall be made when court or other dispute resolution proceedings are commenced), formally within two years of the date on which the party bringing the claim became aware (or ought reasonably to have become aware) of the circumstances or facts which give rise to a claim or potential claim against us, and, in any event, no later than two years after any alleged breach of contract, negligence, delict or other cause of action.

20. Timetable

We will agree on a timetable to enable you to meet your statutory obligations to issue annual financial statements and to meet any other deadlines you have brought to our attention. However, any such timetable will be based on the assumption that we will receive the appropriate co-operation and assistance to perform an effective and efficient review.

21. Fees

We will render invoices in respect of the services comprising fees, disbursements and VAT thereon (where appropriate), together with any other foreign taxes (if applicable) that might be payable thereon ("fees"). Details of our fees and any special payment terms will be set out in the engagement letter.

Our fees are based on the time spent on your affairs by our partners and staff, and on the levels of skill and responsibility involved, the nature and complexity of the services, and the resources required to complete the engagement. These fees may differ from estimates that may have been supplied, which estimates will be provisional only. Stringent reporting requirements or deadlines imposed by you might require work to be carried out at a higher level than usual or outside normal working hours. This may result in increased costs. Additional fees may also result from material changes in the services or from difficulties in obtaining information, which could not reasonably have been foreseen. These will be agreed with you before they are billed. Our fees, plus expenses, will be billed at appropriate intervals during the course of the year and settlement is due on presentation of our invoices.

Fees are calculated either:

- (a) on an hourly basis at charge-out rates applicable to the person undertaking the work. Stringent reporting requirements or deadlines imposed by you might require work to be carried out at a higher level than usual or in extreme cases outside normal working hours. This will result in increased costs. Our current maximum and minimum rates for normal work within normal working hours applicable from time to time may be obtained on request; or
- (b) on a tariff basis for taxation or Company secretarial services. These rates are available on request at the time matters are specifically referred to us.

Time spent on the telephone is recorded and charged at normal rates. Outlays in respect of travelling expenses, photocopies, stationery, revenue stamps, postages and telephone calls will be recoverable at cost to us at our predetermined rates.

Our fee estimate is based on the assumption that the information we require is made available to us in accordance with the agreed timetables, and that key executives and personnel are available during the course of our work. If delay or any other problems beyond our control occurs, this may result in additional fees for which invoices will be raised on the above basis.

In return for the delivery of the services by us, you will be required to pay our fees, without any right of set-off, on presentation of our invoice.

Delivery of our services shall mean:

- (a) review: five working days after our upon delivery of final financial statements;
- (b) consulting and other services: upon rendering advice or upon dispatch of correspondence, as appropriate.

We will be entitled to raise fees upon delivery as set out above. In the event that you are not in agreement with any fee raised you will notify us in writing of your objection within 21 working days of our dispatch of the fee note. Failure to do so will constitute acceptance of the fee. Approval of financial statements or minutes reflecting our fees will constitute acceptance of the fees, including any under provision which does not warrant redrawing the financial statements.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, should our accrued fees reach a level which we consider to be material such accrued fees will become due and payable immediately upon presentation of our fee note, failing which the rendering of all further professional services will be suspended pending receipt of payment.

In the event of your appointing an alternative firm of accountants in our stead, or otherwise terminating our mandate, we will be entitled to raise a fee upon receipt of such notification for an amount adequate to cover all work done to date and not yet billed, at our standard charge-out rates, including disbursements incurred. In such event you undertake to settle our account in full prior to our handing over books and records to you or to our successor.

Our fees will be inclusive of VAT which will rank for deduction as input tax by registered vendors.

Subject to the foregoing, our fees are payable on presentation. We will be entitled, subject to our discretion, to charge interest on all amounts outstanding for more than 30 days from the date of presentation of our fee note up to the maximum rate allowed by law. Such interest will be calculated on a monthly basis. All payments will be allocated first as to interest, then as to outlays, then as to the longest outstanding fee.

In the event that invoices are not settled within 30 days of presentation, we reserve the right to charge compound interest monthly at 3% above the prime rate until the debt is settled.

Without prejudice to any other rights that we may have in law, we reserve the right to suspend or terminate the performance of the services or any part thereof to you immediately, at any time, with or without notice, should payment of any of our fees be overdue.

The fees will be subject to review by us each year and will vary with a number of factors including the extent of the assistance we receive from members of staff in preparing routine schedules and analyses.

It is our usual practice to provide estimates of our fees in advance of the work commencing and we shall require payments on account as our work progresses.

22. Distribution of any service or product

Any product of the services released to you in any form or medium will be supplied by us on the basis that it is for your benefit and information only and that it may not be copied, referred to or disclosed, in whole or in part (save for your own internal purposes), without our prior written consent. The services will be delivered on the basis that you may not quote our name or reproduce our logo in any form or medium without our prior written consent. You may disclose in whole any product of the services to your bankers and legal and other professional advisers for the purposes of your seeking advice in relation to the services, provided that when doing so you inform them that:

- (a) Disclosure by them (save for their own internal purposes) is not permitted without our prior written consent; and
- (b) We accept no responsibility or liability whatsoever and neither do we owe any duty of care to them in connection with the services.

23. Responsibility relating to electronic distribution of our conclusion

We acknowledge that as directors of the company you may wish to publish the company's financial statements and the reviewer's report on the company's web site or distribute them to shareholders by means such as e-mail. Your responsibilities concerning the preparation, dissemination and signing of the financial statements do not change simply because the financial statements are reproduced or distributed electronically; it is your responsibility to ensure that any such publication properly presents the financial information and any reviewer's report. We request that you advise us of any intended electronic publication before it occurs. Where our review report is reproduced in any medium, the complete financial statements, including notes, must also be presented.

By giving our consent to the issue of our conclusion with the financial statements on the web site we do not accept any duty of care and deny any liability beyond our statutory duties as independent reviewers. As independent reviewers, we will review the process by which the financial statements to be published electronically are derived from the financial information contained in the manually signed financial statements, check that the proposed electronic version is identical in content with the manually signed financial statements and check that the conversion of the manually signed financial statements into an electronic format has not distorted the overall presentation of the financial information, for example by highlighting certain information so as to give it greater prominence.

You are responsible for the controls over, and the security of the web site and, where applicable, for establishing and controlling the process for electronically distributing annual reports and other financial information. We remind you that the examination of controls over the maintenance and integrity of the company's web site is beyond the scope of the review of the financial statements and if your directors' responsibilities statements does not include reference to this we will include it as a note at the end of the electronic version of our review report. Accordingly, we accept no responsibility for any changes that may have occurred to the financial statements since they were initially presented on the web site. However, if we do become aware of any subsequent amendments, we will notify the directors that the financial statements no longer correspond with the manually signed financial statements.

Uncertainty regarding legal requirements is compounded as information published on the internet is accessible in many countries with different legal requirements relating to the preparation and dissemination of financial statements and if the directors' responsibilities statement does not refer to this, or if we otherwise consider it appropriate, we will include a note describing this uncertainty at the end of the electronic version of our review report.

We reserve the right to withhold consent to the electronic publication of our report if the reviewed financial statements or the reviewer's report are to be published in an inappropriate manner or to request amendments to the electronic reviewer's report if we are not satisfied with the proposed wording or its presentation in the context of the financial statements.

24. Referral commission

As a consequence of our relationship with other professionals in various areas of business, we may from time to time receive referral commission from them. Prior to us referring you to such party, our terms of arrangement shall be disclosed to you.

25. Quality of service

We will seek to ensure that our service is satisfactory at all times and delivered with reasonable skill and care. If at any time you would like to discuss with us how the service can be improved you are invited to contact the partner identified in the engagement letter.

As a requirement of the IRBA to provide excellent quality review work, we are required to review certain of our files internally. Independent third party reviewers may be utilised to facilitate this process. The person or institution that will be selected by us will be required by us to sign a confidentiality agreement and will treat all information inspected with the strictest of confidence.

26. Non-exclusivity

You hereby acknowledge that we provide a variety of other services to a large and diverse range of clients. The provision of the services to you will not prevent us from providing the same or similar services to other parties, some of whom could be competitors of yours or who may be in conflict with you. You also acknowledge that we may already have provided the same or similar services to other parties.

Where we are aware of the same or similar services being provided to other parties, safeguards will be implemented to protect your interests. These safeguards will include the use of different personnel and other barriers to ensure the confidentiality of information.

27. Other services

We can provide other services, such as due diligence investigations, internal auditing, cash flow / profit forecasts and management consulting, etc. Should you wish to engage us for these services, we shall be pleased to discuss these with you. A separate letter(s) of engagement will be issued for these engagements.

28. Use of Nolands Consultants

We may for the purposes of this engagement utilise services of partners, directors, consultants or employees (collectively "Nolands Consultants") of other independent Nolands offices or companies ("Nolands Licensees") to assist us in providing services to you. In such event, any such Nolands Consultants shall be deemed to be acting as our agents and/or consultants (collectively "Our Agents") and not as a partner, director, consultant, employee or agent of any other persons (including Nolands South Africa (Pty) Ltd or any other Nolands Licensees). We shall accordingly be liable for all the activities and advice of the Nolands Consultants as if they in all respects are, or deemed to be (as the case may be), Our Agents. It further follows that no other Nolands Licensees or Nolands South Africa (Pty) Ltd assumes any responsibility to you in connection with this engagement. Accordingly, by engaging us in terms hereof the duly agree to and are bound to the content of this paragraph.

29. Future years

We propose that this engagement letter will be in place until replaced. If circumstances change, we will issue a new engagement letter. Until such time, this letter will be in force even where there is a change in group structure.

This engagement letter is contractual in nature and includes all the relevant terms that will govern the engagement for which it has been prepared. The terms of this letter supersede any prior oral or written representations or commitments by or between the parties. Any material changes or additions to the terms set forth in this letter will only become effective if evidenced by a written amendment to this letter, signed by all the parties.